

MICHIGAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION FOUNDATION

DISSERTATION GRANT GUIDELINES

APPLICATION DEADLINE: January 30, 2018

The Michigan Psychological Association Foundation (MPAF) will be making at least one grant up to $1000 to support dissertation research in any area of diversity and multicultural psychology. The student's dissertation proposal must have been approved by his/her committee before applying for the grant; the student must be a Student Affiliate of the Michigan Psychological Association (MPA) or may apply for Student Affiliate at the time of the Dissertation Grant application; and the proposal must be sponsored by a member of MPA. It is expected that the student will present the results of the dissertation at a forthcoming Annual Conference of MPA. Applicants may expect to receive review committee feedback on their proposal.

One (1) copy of the following materials should be submitted via email or snail mail to the address below:

- A cover sheet which is attached to this announcement
- A maximum of ten (10) double-spaced pages summarizing the proposed project; the proposal should include (a) purpose of the project, (b) a brief literature review specific to the study's focus, (c) hypothesis, (d) methods, procedures, research design, and planned statistical analysis (these are key sections: be specific) and (e) a brief description of the study's contribution to psychology.
- A one (1) page itemized budget (use budget page) and explicit documentation of how the grant would enhance or facilitate the proposed project
- A projected timeline for the proposed project that includes when the results would be presented at an MPA Spring Convention, usually held in April
- 1-2 page curriculum vitae
- Letter of support from dissertation chair
- Grants will be made on or before February 29, 2018
